

Nine reasons why Emily NEEDS Spanner

You won't believe number 6!

1 Look at his face

Just look at it.

2 Emily's mental and spiritual health will be vastly improved

A clearer mind leads to more focus in the kitchen.

3 No financial burden on you!

Emily will pay for the dog and all veterinary and dietary expenses.

4 Protection on walks

Especially after dark.

5 He will go everywhere with Emily and sleep in her room

So there is no imposition of a burden upon the greater household.

6 Emily will henceforth clean ALL the faecal matter deposited by any, and indeed all dogs, residing at 2 Slade Avenue, Lindfield, NSW, 2070; weekly.

Don't you just hate poo!

7 He will be allowed to stay over at Hamish's house

Not only allowed, but perhaps even gently encouraged.

8 Emily is VERY responsible

Spanner would be very polite and expertly trained - with the expert assistance of the man that brought you Enzo!

9 Emily literally walks ≥ 7.5 km every single day

Sometimes it gets lonely :(

The editors would like to note

That initially this paper was slated to be a pros and cons list, but unfortunately the authors, in their extensive research on this topic, were not able to find any negative aspects of this proposal.
